

2018 ‘Show Weekend’ Bed & Breakfast Service

An annual fundraiser for Local Charities, Historic Building Preservation, and Conservation Projects.

West Fairlee Center Congregational Church Established 1809

Each summer during Aloha Camps’ Show Weekend members of our community volunteer to host visiting parents in their homes. For these accommodations, parents pay a modest fee which supports area charities, historic preservation and conservation projects.

Experience convenience, comfort, and hospitality. All of our homes are clean, comfortable, and cordial—and convenient to the camps on Lake Fairlee and Lake Morey. We will serve you a delicious Vermont breakfast each morning. You can learn more about the region and community, and we’d be happy to answer any questions you may have, including tips on restaurants and places to pick up lunch for Saturday’s picnic.

Modest rates. Our rates are $110 per night, single or double occupancy. There are no additional VT meals or room taxes as the Community Club is not for profit and your hosts are providing the hospitality on a totally volunteer basis.

Reserve a space. To enjoy our Show Weekend Bed & Breakfast Service, please print and complete the registration form below and mail it back along with your check for the full payment (see address, side 2). Accommodations are filled in order of receipt of registration each year, from February onward.

What next? After “matching” you with a host family, we will mail your reservation confirmation and by end of May, information about your host: their name, address, phone, email, and directions. A few weeks before Show Weekend, please give your host a call to verify directions and touch base on logistics, such as when and how to “check in.” The timetable below outlines each of these steps:

February 1st	May 30	Early July	July 20-22
Registration opens for Show Weekend B&B Service, and continues til all our available homes are filled.	You will receive updates, host information, and driving directions.	Please contact your host to coordinate arrival time and confirm directions.	Show Weekend- Welcome!

Why a deadline? Our B&B service is very popular, and we have a limited number of homes available. We want to be sure a family has time to find alternative lodging in case we are full.
