

Affiliation with the West Fairlee Center Congregational Church

The West Fairlee Center Congregational Church, a member of the United Church of Christ – Vermont Conference, has long provided local communities with a place of serenity to meditate, worship and to celebrate important life events. The congregation is very small, but the Church is open to everyone.

Types of Membership

Regular Members

Regular membership in this Church shall be open to any person who has been baptized and who has been confirmed or made public confession of faith in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior. Membership is open to all without regard to race or color.

Associate Members

Persons who worship regularly with this congregation and contribute to the support of the Church who, for some conscientious reason do not wish to become Regular Members, may become Associate Members by their request and a two-thirds vote at the Annual Meeting of the Church. Associate Members shall have the privilege to vote in Church matters at the Annual Meeting.

Friends of the Church

Friends of the Church are those who have an interest in the Church, but do not wish to participate in religious functions of the Church. Our Friends have been instrumental in preserving this historical building over the years and are formally recognized for their significant contributions.
